HOTELMEN SUBSCRIBE OVER $100,000 TO FIGHT LOCAL OPTION CAMPAIGN

Secretary Teviotdale Says the Trade Keen for the Fight.

100 DEALERS EACH GUARANTEE $1,000.

Intend to Fight to Protect Investment of Over $3,000,000.

The business men of the province have completed their organization and have subscribed over $100,000 to fight the local option campaign which the Temperance and Moral Reform league propose to institute," said A. B. Teviotdale, secretary of the Local Vigilance committee, to the Bulletin this morning. "We are keen for the fight and the sooner it is brought on the better we will be. I am sure that all the Temperance and Moral Reform leagues have decided to limit their operations to two districts, namely the districts of Edmonton, front of Saskatchewan to Lloydminster, and from Tofield to Wainwright, and front Wainwright to the south, and front the branch district from Wetaskiwin to Frontall to Lacome to Casper."

$3,000,000 in Business.

"There are between 40 and 50 hotels in these two districts, and the business dealers should fight for the protection of their rights and property. The amount of capital invested in the hotels in these two districts exceeds $3,000,000. The business dealers do not propose to forfeit their investment without a fight."

"At the annual meeting of the association held in Calgary last week, at which C. H. Belanger, president of the association, presided, and at which the majority of the business men of the province was present, it was decided to oppose the campaign of the Temperance and Moral Reform league, and over 100 hotelmen guaranteed $1,000 each to the fund to protect their business."

Must Keep Good.

"During the discussion at the meeting the hotelmen were impressed with the necessity of protecting their hotels up to the best possible standard. They were advised to join the Temperance and Moral Reform league, and to devote their attention and energies to improving their business, and to be guided by their houses and to rigidly observe the law. The Licensed Victuallers Association, which the association recognises fully the necessity of keeping the trade clean and the sound business, has agreed to support their principles and meet the public demand for good and well regulated hotels."

THEY HAVE BEEN. MRS. PERFIELD OF Rockefeller Family.

New York, July 11.—Many of the residents of the city, who have enjoyed her beauty were wondering yesterday what has become of Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, the widow of the late President McKinley, who moved last Sunday from No. 12 East End Avenue, where she had resided since she came to this city, this morning.

Mrs. Perfield did not take any of her neighbors into her confidence, but it is believed that she has gone back to Cleveland.

Canadian Troops Were Signally Honored in Coronation Procession, Not Slighted, as Alleged.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, July 11.—Concerning the reports of alleged disaffection on the part of the Canadian coronation contingent over their share in the various processions, a high military authority states that any such disaffection is entirely unfounded and points out that the Canadian troops were invited to Buckingham Palace, this being the first to give their Sovereign the salute on starting his journey. The Queen's Guards were invited from the Canadian Division, the unique honor.

Added to this, there was actually a representative of the overseas forces in the procession itself, while on the second day they presented the Queen with laurels and the rose in the van of the procession surrounded by the overseas military. These facts, declares this correspondent of the Canadian Associated Press, entirely dispel any complaint that contempt was shown for the colonials.

Board of Trade Appeals to Those Who May Not Have Been Counted in Census Taking.

The Board of Trade has started a campaign of co-operation in the census taking, which will help to make sure that all those who belong to certain classes of the community, and, although the census will be over by Saturday it is thought that many persons will still be in the city.

The campaign is to be conducted by the Board of Trade, and C. C. McCull and J. K. McDonald for the defendant company.

Outrageous.

The defendant company are the owners of a parcel of land situated on Wolfe Creek, about 12 miles west of Edmonton, on the line of the G.T.P. Railway, which they have had surveyed and subdivided into lots, and called the Wolfe Creek Townsite.

The plaintiff, Roland Dunn, of Fort Saskatchewan, agreed to sell to the defendant company two lots, situated in this townsite, giving as the down payment $1,000, and a further $1,000 to the town of Fort Saskatchewan and a further $1,000 to the Wolfe Creek Townsite.

The plaintiff, Roland Dunn, of Fort Saskatchewan, agreed to sell to the defendant company two lots, situated in this townsite, giving as the down payment $1,000, and a further $1,000 to the town of Fort Saskatchewan and a further $1,000 to the Wolfe Creek Townsite.

The defendant company denied any misrepresentation or fraud in the statement that they had calculated the balance due under the agreement in default of payment, foreclosing the plaintiff.

The misrepresentations set out by the plaintiff were made by one of the agents of the defendant, and by the agent of the defendant, and by A. H. Pearce, the secretary of the company.

Some of the Misrepresentations.

Some of the misrepresentations set out by the plaintiff were as follows:

That the lands mentioned in the agreement were on a divisional point, and that the lands were on the point of the King and Queen.

That the lands were on the defendant's townsite.

ARGUING FOR DELAY.
In the coal strike the world over is made a stand at a time. The reciprocity agreement is not a finality, a conclusion, an end, but a step in the way of tariff reduction and trade expansion. It is a temporary and impossible to say what the results will be. It is to be hoped that the operators will earn something more than net, and that the operators would rather earn dividends than net. The thing to be learned is that it is necessary to make the two parties co-operate in the production of coal. This the conciliation board was appointed to find out, and the conciliation board should now provide the basis for such action on the part of the public or the public representatives as will get work started again.

Amendments proposed to increase the classes of Canadian manufactured goods admissible under the reciprocity agreement were deposited in the United States senate. That materially betters the chance of the agreement passing the senate at a time not remote. The time to be hoped for is the hoped to be avoided by uniting Democrats and Republican Republicans in a fight for the injection of new amendments. The public, however, is not to be asked to have its voice heard. The power would be made by hastening slowly, in other words by accepting the reductions offered in the agreement rather than impervious to the demands of the public and the reopening of negotiations between the two governments. They will attend to the duties on manufactured goods later, no doubt.

In an interview in London, "Toby," M.P., annihilates the Government's majority, turns out with the minister reformer, calculates the time to be won. Meantime the Government continues to win the by-elections with commendable regularity.

Mr. A. E. Lancaster, M.P., thinks reciprocity would be good for the farmer's pocket but bad for his pocket. Even so, it would be better than the national policy.

Perhaps for appearance sake it would be better to hold the communications' meetings behind closed doors.

The coal strike continues in the coal belt. West of the Rockies are prepared for entry into the trouble. The first step in that direction would seem to be to find out what the trouble is about. OBSERVATIONS

Yester evening—At one of Mr. Borden's meetings in a small constituency the mayor and a civic delegation met the opposition leader with reciprocity badges pinned on their lapels. The mayor, in his speech, said that reciprocity was a provincial question. What have they been doing during all the years that have gone? Why have they not done something to help the farmer? The farmer would be reduced? And why will they not be able to agitate for their reduction after the agreement has passed as before? If they are the ones to do it, then the farmers seem to wish to have the public think—their reasonable course would seem to be to take the reduction now offered—very substantial reduction—agitate for a second time and then proceed to lay upon certain lines not included in the agreement.

Complaint is made by these opposition friends of tariff reduction because the agreement cannot be altered. The bill is going through the House. Well, it is being altered while going through the House when would it get through? When have the United States opponents of the agreement been able to amend it in amendments which Canada would likely refuse to accept, and so delaying indefinitely the bill? The bill is the same as it was when it was introduced, and more amendments introduced, necessitating further delay. The declared end of the opponents of the agreement is to defeat it. If it passes, then it is going to be delayed. As long as can be, nothing would suit their purpose better than the chance to have it laid over from session to session. The Government at Ottawa and Washington strove to overtake in negotiation the varied proposals offered for their disconnection. And after the reciprocity bill was adopted in total, or delayed for a considerable time, to allow consideration of the proposed amendments. To argue that the agreement should be rejected in the House is merely to argue that the Opposition should have power to delay its passage indefinitely. Delaying their bill, and demonstrating that it is to be expected that delay is the end they have in view in demanding the power of delay.

Major Sharp, M.P., thinks that if there was a Unionist Government in London, headed by Mr. Chamberlain, and a Conservative Government in Ottawa, headed by Mr. Borden, the British tax-payer would be obliged to pay duty on goods bought in foreign countries. If the British taxpayer escapes until these twin impossibilities happen he will eat free food as long as his teeth last.

THE FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL MARKETS

EDMONTON CITY MARKET

Edmonton, July 12.—A local potato famine has developed during the past few days. In view of the extreme cost of the widespread scarcity, wherein a man is compelled to give potatoes away, the situation has become serious. There are no more old potatoes in stock at all. Yet those who know state that the demand, could they only be supplied, would be enormous. The demand, however, is not so great that the market is a fair figure, a little less than 2 cents a pound. The new potatoes are yet reported. Receipts at the First street market but the situation seems to be still more serious. The market remains as it were.

CITY COUNCIL HAD A QUIET SESSION

The Dismissal of Bouillon and Butchart was Not Discussed

Owing to the fact that the suspension granted yesterday afternoon by Mr. Justice Simmonds prevents any action on the report of the investigating committee, the first formal meeting of the council was first from the exciting incidents created in the insurance offices. No explanation of the specific was offered, the sudden and unexpected change in the program, and with a calm that might have been due to the fact that no war had happened the aldermen devoted several hours to the disposal of an accumulation of routine business.

After a brief session in which the members of the council, save the chairman, were present, the motion was carried that the franchise agreement drafted by Commissioner Bouillon was rejected on the motion of Mr. Grindley and Mr. Hyndman, and that Mr. Grindley and Mr. Hyndman was not present.

On the motion of Mr. Borden, a motion of the whole council to accept the International Heating and Lighting Co. and laid on the table several months ago, was carried. Numerous objections raised by Commissioner Bouillon, was referred to a committee, and with the exception of the mayor, the public works committee and the city solicitor, with power to add to the members, were the recorder of the two or three clauses that were considered objectionable, with instructions to report to the council as soon as possible for permanent works.

Mr. Hughes and H. H. Parke were present as representing Mr. Coates, and Mr. Grindley, and the committee's position for the establishment of a municipal gas plant. A motion made by Mr. Grindley, and supported by the committee "to look into the cost of a municipal gas plant" was not seconded, and the motion, with the exception of the two or three clauses that were considered objectionable, was referred to a committee to report to the council as soon as possible for permanent works.

A communication from Commissioner Bouillon stating that one of the exhibits in the investigation was needed by him for work upon which he was engaged, was filed without comment.

Described Clients of the Hearing. The council, before the hearing, agreed to supply him with copies of the exhibits in the investigation into charges against the commissioners in effect, deprived his clients the two weeks of time he had been given before the hearing, was the statement made by O. M. Bigger, in a communication to the mayor, in which he said that this action was directly contrary to the understanding reached at the meeting of the commissioners and the committee, when it was agreed that he should meet with C. C. McCall, Mr. McCall's lawyer, and discuss what documents should be copies. He had attended at the city hall with Mr. McCall for this purpose, but that he had been refused to do so by Mr. Cau's request.

A report of the parks committee recommending the appointment of a permanent park ranger, and the laying of a trail for consideration in committee of the whole.

The following report of the public works committee was passed:

Payment of accounts, totaling $11,392.77 was authorized.

The following report of the public works committee was passed:

Payment of accounts, totaling $11,392.77 was authorized.

On the recommendation of the commissioners, the construction of a sidewalk on the old oil field ground was deferred on the suggestion of the park committee, until the time when the improvement throughout the city had been adopted.

On the recommendation of the commissioners, the construction of the sinking fund investment board a loan of $10,000 to Chas. W. Campbell was authorized.

Establishing Street Grades. A communication from the commissioners was received to report at the next meeting on the advisability or establishing at once street grades throughout the pending section of this report the report of the commissioners recommending the construction of plank walks for which petitions had been presented to the commissioners.

Several of the aldermen were of the opinion that an effort should be made to procure petition for permanent walks.

On the motion of an anonymous member of the Borden Co., amounting to $10.00, for engraving a resolution presented to R. L. Borden, leader of the Conservative party, on the occasion of his visit, was authorized.

On the motion of Mr. Grindley, a communication from Harold Wilson and Co., of Toronto, offering to supply a model playground outfit for the city, with a price of $1,000, if the purchase of the city for the sum of $750, was referred to the parks committee.

A communication from the Edmonton Retailers Association urging that in the interests of local trade, the city should not be required to pay an annual license fee of $500, was laid on the table, to be voted.

THE DENTISTS ARE MEETING IN CALGARY

Dr. A. E. Jamieson of Edmonton is Elected President and Dr. F. P.
Whitaker, Sec-Treas., An Address
On Care of School Children's Teeth.

The Provincial Dental Association is in session in Calgary this week with 100 dentists from all over the province.

The officers for the coming year are Dr. F. P. Whitaker, president, Dr. E. E. Bannister, first vice-president,
Dr. H. G. House, Calgary; secretary, treasurer, Dr. H. F. Whitaker, editor.

An address on "The Care of School
Children's Teeth," was given by Dr. J. C. McCallum.

The subject was opened with a thorough discussion of the methods of treatment of the teeth of the older children, and the fact that the teeth of each succeeding generation, that of the present being the most advanced, cannot be stopped it will not be a long time till the human race becomes extinct.

Speaking of an examination which had been made of the children's teeth of the older children, Dr. McCallum stated that the examination had showed 60 per cent. of the pupils with teeth which called for immediate dental attention.

"Faulty teeth mean faulty health,"
he said. "The teeth of the older children are nervous, backward children are affected from the effects of bad teeth, and the teeth of the older children are not in good condition. When noticed when the teeth are put in good condition, a gentleman of much experience has said that when he has been found that vicious tendencies in children have been detected, the first thing to do is to have the teeth of the child examined.

In concluding his address to the Association he said: "I want to encourage you to do your best to educate the public in the understanding that sound teeth and clean mouths are the best guarantee for good health and good citizens."
